The service details of all junior teachers and lab assistants in respect of Government Higher Secondary Schools and all staff of Aided Higher Secondary Schools have to be entered in the SPARK System. The data entry work is entrusted to KELTRON. For the implementation of the scheme, following steps have to be adhered to by each Principal.

- 1. The nodal officer should collect the Service Book of the required staff (on proper receipt) from the Principal and hand it over to KELTRON Data entry centre. Keltron Equipment Complex at Karakulam, Thiruvananthapuram. On completion of the data entry, necessary verification has to be made by the nodal officer and a certificate in the prescribed format (format-03) has to be given to KELTRON. A duplicate copy of the certificate has to be forwarded to the DHSE by post. A triplicate copy has to be kept in the school. After the completion of the data entry, the Service books have to be returned to the Principal by the Nodal Officer.
- 2. Correctness of data entered is of utmost importance as subsequent salary and other service related decisions will be based on the data entered. Any data entry error can have very serious consequences and therefore the Nodal officer should ensure that no errors have crept in the data entered. A penalty of Rs.1/-has been imposed on the data entry agency for every error. Hence the Nodal officer should compare the data entered with the original and a certificate has to be issued regarding the number of errors entered during the entry.
- 3. A Temporary Permanent Employee Number (PEN) will be generated at the time of data entry of each employee record which should be pasted on each Service Book in legible form with out fail. The Temporary Permanent Employee Number (PEN) shall be prefixed with TPEN.
- 4. The service details of those employee's whose details have been entered while working in other departments need not be entered again. This can be confirmed by checking whether a PEN has been noted in the Service Book of that employee.
- 5. If the Service Book of a particular employee has not been opened, the details have to be given to the data entry agency in the prescribed format ( format -04.)

- 6. Data entry of the employees of the majority of the Aided Schools have been completed. Principals should ensure that only the service book of those employees whose data entry have not been made are handed over to the Nodal officer (Service books without PEN only may be handed over to KELTRON for data entry). Data Entry of the Service Books of the staff who have availed LWA for long period have to be made.
- 7. The Nodal officers are requested to make necessary arrangements with the KELTRON authorities before leaving the headquarters. For more information the following persons can be contacted.

Sri.Ramesh, Deputy officer (SPARK), Keltron-Mobile -9447525134 Sri.Aseef Reju.M.I., DHSE – Mobile -9961499166. Smt. Zeenath, Deputy Officer (SPARK), KELTRON, Mobile- 9495623299

8. The Nodal officers are eligible for TA and DA as per Rules for their travel to Keltron for conducting Data Entry work. The Principals are hereby directed to strictly adhere to the above directions scrupulously. Any delay will affect the disbursement of salary of the staff as it is has been decided to generate the Pay Bills for the month of November using SPARK System.
