Editorial

Dear All

First of all I thank God Almighty for the opportunity given to me to take up the responsibility of NSS Unit in our School. In continuance with the tradition of taking new initiatives our unit is launching an e-bulletin. It is a great privilege for me to bring forth the first edition of e-news letter in January 2014.

The National Service Scheme (NSS) of this school was started in 2007 with the strength of 1 Unit (100 volunteers). Since its inception various Program Officers has been appointed to guide the NSS Unit and its activities. Mr. James Joseph & Mr. Thomas M Cherian were the past Programme Officers.

The NSS unit has done various activities through different programs under Regular Activity and Special Camping programs. Brief Report of this unit is added in another page.

I am absolutely certain that the best is yet to come. Within the next issue, you can expect updates to the look and content of this e-bulletin. It will be updated constantly with current information about the activities in our school. E-bulletin gives up in style points. Just click on a video link and you can sit back, watch and listen to a video message from RAJARSHI.

So, look around, enjoy reading about what's happening today at RAJARSHI, send us your thoughts and ideas, and then keep checking back with us.

Thanks to all of you for listening..

Binu K Varghese
Programme Officer

NSS LOGO

The symbol of the NSS is based on the 'Rath' wheel of the Konark Sun Temple situated in Orissa. These giant wheels of the Sun Temple portray the cycle of creation, preservation and release, and signify the movement in life across time and space. It stands for community as well as change and implies the continuous striving of National Service Scheme for social transformation & upliftment.

NSS BADGE

The NSS symbol is embossed on the NSS badge. The NSS volunteers wear it while undertaking any programme of community service. The Konark wheel in the symbol has eight bars which represent the 24 hours of the day. The Red colour in the badge indicates that the NSS volunteers are full of blood. i.e. lively, active energetic and full of high spirit. The Navy Blue colour indicates the cosmos of which the NSS is a tiny part, ready to contribute its share for the welfare of mankind.

NSS MOTTO

The motto of NSS is 'NOT Me But You'. This reflects the essence of democratic living and upholds the need for selfless service and appreciation of the other person's point of view and also to show consideration for fellow human beings.

NSS DAY

NSS was formally launched on 24th September, 1969, the birth centenary year of the Father of the Nation. 24 September is celebrated every year as NSS Day with appropriate programmes & activities.
